

The Society for Contemporary Craft

The project scope included expansion to the existing gallery, store and storage areas of the existing facility located in the Produce Terminal Building on Smallman Street.

A workshop area was created in the basement previously used as storage. This expansion required a new exit stair, elevator and toilet facilities.

The entire project was completed while the gallery was open for business.